

I think the federal government should be providing the public more protections and not disrupting the Indiana government from protecting it's citizens. The "do not call" law has been terrific!